GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE: Andante

Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy

OPENING HYMN: "God of Grace and God of Glory"

P366

THE CALL TO WORSHIP:

Leader: God calls people from the farthest places of the earth.

PEOPLE: From east and west, from north and south, the people of God are gathered.

Leader: God invites those with disabilities and the parents of small children – anyone who may be left behind.

PEOPLE: From all ways of life and every experience the people of God are gathered.

Leader: Those who are weeping will be consoled, those who are thirsty will be led by water brooks, those who stumble shall find a straight path.

ALL: We hear God's call through prophet words, and we come as a congregation to be the gathered people of God.

LIGHTING THE CANDLE OF PEACE ~unison

Where there is peace in the heart, there is peace in the home.

Where there is peace in the home, there is peace in the community.

Where there is peace in the community, there is peace in the nation.

Where there is peace in the nation, there is peace in the world.

May peace begin here, right now, in each of our hearts. Amen.

PRAYER OF INVOCATION:~unison

Eternal God, we gather as your people to worship you. By your Spirit break the bonds that hold our minds captive to the petty concerns of our lives that we may know the freedom of new possibilities. Quiet the din of our distracted spirits that we may hear your gentle voice calling us. Transform our very lives that we may go forth from this hour with deeper commitment to do your will, with a firm assurance of your presence. We pray in the name of Jesus Christ. Amen.

THE LORD'S PRAYER (trespasses)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

THE FIRST SCRIPTURE LESSON: 1 Thessalonians 5:1-11

p. 1347

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers and sisters, you do not need to have anything written to you. For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. When they say, "There is peace and security," then sudden destruction will come upon them, as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and there will be no escape! But you, beloved, are not in darkness, for that day to surprise you like a thief; for you are all children of light and children of the day; we are not of the night or of darkness. So then let us not fall asleep as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober; for those who sleep sleep at night, and those who are drunk get drunk at night. But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, and put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. For God has destined us not for wrath but for obtaining salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, who died for us, so that whether we are awake or asleep we may live with him. Therefore encourage one another and build up each other, as indeed you are doing.

THE SECOND SCRIPTURE LESSON: Matthew 25:14-30

p. 1174

"For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

The second system contains the concluding lines of the hymn. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a clear cadence at the end of each system.
