GREETING AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE: Andantino mosso

G. Ramella

OPENING HYMN: "Praise with Joy the World's Creator"

V 312

THE CALL TO WORSHIP: (from James 3:17-18)

Leader: God's wisdom is pure, peaceable, gentle, open to reason, full of mercy and good fruits, without uncertainty or insincerity.

PEOPLE: Our wisdom is none of these things. We compete for knowledge, and our learning fosters belligerence. Our understanding is insufficient and our compassion is limited. We long for certainty, and sacrifice too much for its sake. We strive for conditional sincerity.

Leader: The harvest of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

PEOPLE: We do not fully comprehend God's wisdom or achieve God's righteousness, but we come together to share insight, read Scripture, sing, pray, and make peace.

Leader: Let us worship together.

ALL: Come, let us worship together!

LIGHTING THE CANDLE OF PEACE ~unison

For this fragile planet earth,
its times and tides, its sunsets and seasons:

We give thanks this day.

For our human community,
our common past and future hope, our oneness transcending all separation,
our capacity to work for peace and justice in the midst of hostility and oppression:

We give thanks this day.

For high hopes and noble causes, for faith without fanaticism,
for understanding of views not shared:

We give thanks this day.

For all who have labored and suffered for a fairer world,
who have lived so that others might live in dignity and freedom:

We give thanks this day.

For human liberty and sacred rites;
for opportunities to change and grow, to affirm and choose:

We give thanks this day.

We pray that we may live not by our fears but by our hopes,
not by our words but by our deeds. ^{##} Amen.

Rev. O. Eugene Pickett

PRAYER OF CONFESSION:~unison

God of vibrant life, you place us in your vineyard, and give us one another to share the labor of tending the vines as they grow, yet we act as if this land belongs to us alone and not to you.

You have shown us your ways of nurture, yet we refuse to learn. You send your messengers, and we refuse to listen.

Forgive our foolish ways, and train us to tend this world, your vineyard,
Through Jesus Christ, the living vine and faithful vine keeper. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

ALL: Thanks be to God

THE FIRST SCRIPTURE LESSON: Philippians 3:4b-14

p. 1340

....If anyone else has reason to be confident in the flesh, I have more: circumcised on the eighth day, a member of the people of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew born of Hebrews; as to the law, a Pharisee; as to zeal, a persecutor of the church; as to righteousness under the law, blameless.

Yet whatever gains I had, these I have come to regard as loss because of Christ. More than that, I regard everything as loss because of the surpassing value of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord. For his sake I have suffered the loss of all things, and I regard them as rubbish, in order that I may gain Christ and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own that comes from the law, but one that comes through faith in Christ, the righteousness from God based on faith. I want to know Christ and the power of his resurrection and the sharing of his sufferings by becoming like him in his death, if somehow I may attain the resurrection from the dead.

Not that I have already obtained this or have already reached the goal; but I press on to make it my own, because Christ Jesus has made me his own. Beloved, I do not consider that I have made it my own; but this one thing I do: forgetting what lies behind and straining forward to what lies ahead, I press on toward the goal for the prize of the heavenly call of God in Christ Jesus.

THE SECOND SCRIPTURE LESSON: Matthew 21:33-46

p. 1169

“Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, put a fence around it, dug a wine press in it, and built a watchtower. Then he leased it to tenants and went to another country. When the harvest time had come, he sent his slaves to the tenants to collect his produce. But the tenants seized his slaves and beat one, killed another, and stoned another. Again he sent other slaves, more than the first; and they treated them in the same way. Finally he sent his son to them, saying, ‘They will respect my son.’ But when the tenants saw the son, they said to themselves, ‘This is the heir; come, let us kill him and get his inheritance.’ So they seized him, threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. Now when the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those tenants?” They said to him, “He will put those wretches to a miserable death, and lease the vineyard to other tenants who will give him the produce at the harvest time.”

Jesus said to them, “Have you never read in the scriptures:

‘The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone;
this was the Lord’s doing,
and it is amazing in our eyes’?

Therefore I tell you, the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people that produces the fruits of the kingdom. The one who falls on this stone will be broken to pieces; and it will crush anyone on whom it falls.”

When the chief priests and the Pharisees heard his parables, they realized that he was speaking about them. They wanted to arrest him, but they feared the crowds, because they regarded him as a prophet.

SPECIAL MUSIC: In Remembrance of Me
Chancel Choir

Ragan Courtney & Buryl Red

This special anthem was recorded through Zoom meetings and the magic of smart phones!
Organ and organ-flute accompaniment by Gary Snowbeck, compiled, adapted, and directed by Jeffrey Hutchins.

In remembrance of me eat this bread
In remembrance of me drink this wine
In remembrance of me pray for the time
When God's own will is done.

In remembrance of me heal the sick
In remembrance of me feed the poor
In remembrance of me open the door
And let my people in, let them in.

Take eat and be comforted
Drink and remember too
That this is my body and precious blood
Shed for you, shed for you.

In remembrance of me search for truth
In remembrance of me always love
In remembrance of me don't look above
But in your heart.
Look in your heart for God.

Do this in remembrance of me
Do this in remembrance of me
In remembrance of me.
