Generosity

We are invited and encouraged to celebrate the Season of Generosity in October. As the leaves turn color and the days grow cooler, our worship services and the work of the Generosity Mission Team will guide us in consideration of the place and practice of generosity in our lives, and of our generosity in giving to the church. There are so many gifts that can be shared through the church before we think or speak about money! Think for a moment about the gifts which are shared with the church by its members: singing, teaching, gardening, making coffee, reading the scripture lessons, folding the WINDOW and putting on the address labels, cleaning, planning, hosting, counting, paying bills, cooking, taking minutes, driving, raking, sorting food, operating the camera, being a Deacon, a member of the Ministry Leadership Board, or a member of a mission team like Faith Formation, Buildings & Grounds, the Pastoral Relations Committee, or the Women's Fellowship ...

There are tremendous talents among our congregation!

Our Generosity does include our decisions about our finances and sharing our money. The Church budget provides for the operation of the building, the payroll for the staff, and the funds for the programs of our shared mission.

As we explore the Season of Generosity together this month, I invite your prayers and your reflection of what your Generosity, and what all of our Generosity together, will make possible!

Threshold Workshop

If you missed the Threshold Workshop in September, you missed a good showing of what our congregation is all about. Three groups of seven people shared their likes and dislikes of what is going on with new normals in the church and our lives in general. Steve Simonson did an excellent job as program moderator as did Jim Bennett, Jeanne Mecca and Cathy Welch as team moderators. Two points that stuck in my mind were communication issues and that people like to be asked to serve on a mission team. The fact is, each mission team is made up from both people that volunteered and people who were asked. We are thankful for all those that step up to help. A list of the various mission teams will be printed in the next window. If you have questions about any teams, please feel free to email me (ecollett54@gmail.com) and I will be happy to answer your questions or put you in touch with the person that can. This is my way of improving communication. I am asking you to think about what you can do to help out and grow our church community for the future.

Back to Church and Church School

The Lord blessed NHCC with A FABULOUS Regathering day (formerly known as Rally Day) to kick off the Fall season. Although the weather seemed ify, threatening rain; it didn't seem to dampen anyone's spirits. There were lots of folks attending worship with some faces not seen since before the Covid pandemic, as well as most of our children. WELCOME BACK ALL!

After worship we all gathered downstairs for sandwiches, chips, salads and desserts. Thanks to the Faith Formation Team for their hard work in planning and providing plenty of cold cuts, rolls, and condiments. And thanks to all who shared their various salads and desserts. And thanks to Sue, Lori and Barbara for serving and making sure we all had enough to eat!

Season of Generosity

This year the theme for the Season of Generosity is 'From Bread and Cup to Faith and Giving'. Our actions—caring for each other and service to our community and to people world-wide are the ways we express our faith with action. Part of living our faith involves giving generously of our time, talents, and treasures.

On September 17, the members of the Pastoral Relations Mission Team facilitated a time for participants to discuss the mission team structure of our church and how we can better use this model to re-vitalize our community. It is important to re-engage and re-connect to keep our church financially stable as we move forward. We depend on pledges, fundraisers, endowment contributions, and building rentals to support our mission, staff salaries and building upkeep.

Our Season of Generosity will begin on October 2nd and culminate with the dedication of our financial commitment on October 23rd. Let us respond to the many blessings we receive as disciples of Jesus with the commitment of our financial support to our faith community.

Your Generosity Team: Joan Bennett, Cheryl Bogart, Priscilla Bradford, Mabel Peterson

Threshold Event Looks to the Future

Thirty church members gathered on Saturday morning, Sept. 17, for bagels and coffee and conversation. Conversations in both small groups and the large group considered the reasons for the choice to organize the Church through Mission Teams, the impact of the COVID19 pandemic personally and as a congregation, and steps for the future as we come back together. We talked about ways to improve communication and awareness of Mission Teams, reaching out to make personal invitations to join a Mission Team, building and supporting shared leadership among the congregation, and praying regularly for our Church and our congregation. Watch for follow-up opportunities!

PLEASE VOLUNTEER - Every Sunday!

There are several opportunities for volunteers to assist with our worship service:

CAMERA OPERATORS – We need people to operate the livestream camera each week. This job is done in the church office on Sunday morning from 8:30 – 10:45am. Our goal is to rotate among 6 or 8 trained people. Please contact Scott or Julie.

USHERS & GREETERS – We need assistance from two ushers/greeters on Sunday mornings to welcome people as they arrive, offer bulletins and nametags, and collect the offering. Please sign up through the Church website.

COFFEE HOUR HOSTS – This is a wonderful opportunity for fellowship and conversation after worship. Hosts are responsible for brewing coffee and heating water for tea, and providing cookies or other light treats in individual servings. Please sign up through the Church website.

Worship is In-Person and Online

We welcome you to in-person worship services. Masks are optional, and we are singing in our worship services. Windows will be open, weather permitting, with fans blowing outward. There is room for people to sit at a distance from others if desired. Coffee Hour has resumed in Carroll Hall, provided there are volunteers to host.

We will continue to livestream the worship service through the church website for those who cannot attend in-person by choice or circumstance. Our goal is to provide high-quality livestream and recordings for those who choose to use them. We will review our equipment and procedures to see how we might increase our livestreaming capacity and streamline the recording process.

Ice Cream Social – Big Success

Fun was had by all. Watch for news of our next event!

Musical Gifts

We are very grateful for the musical gifts of our guest organists and keyboardists these past few months: Gail DeBoer, Haley Bracken, Heather Meachen, Angela Lomiglio, and Jurg Oggenfuss. We thank them for their contributions to our music-making as a church!

The Chancel choir is excited to be singing again.

We are currently rehearsing every Thursday at 7:00pm. We anticipate singing more regularly in Sunday worship and are looking forward to practicing for Advent and Christmas. We are also excited to sing some autumnal music of gratitude, harvest, and thanksgiving this season. We anticipate some lovely music this year and we welcome you to join us. Our choir has a good number of altos but only a few sopranos and tenors. If you have an interest in learning where your voice “sits” naturally please be in contact with Jeff and consider joining up!

Members of the North Haven Congregational Church Choir mourn the passing of our fellow chorister, Rose Monaco.

Rose was a dedicated member of the choir for decades and her spirit lives on in our hearts and in our singing. Rose sang in the soprano section. Even when she moved away in 2019, we were able to stay in touch with her via Zoom choir meetings, with assistance from her daughter Lisa. We are grateful for our time with Rose, her charm, her laugh, and we think about her often. A memorial service will be held in the church on Saturday, October 1, at 1:00pm. Please come lend your voice and your support for this devoted member of the North Haven Congregational Church Choir.

The Children’s Choir, in conjunction with church school, is planning to offer music in worship a few times this fall, including Bible Sunday. We will be practicing on many Sundays after regular Sunday school lessons, approximately 10:25am. We anticipate singing in Carroll Hall and dismissing to both teachers and families around coffee hour. We hope to see you and your talented kids there!

United Girls’ Choir/Elm City Girls’ Choir

We are happy to report that the United Girls’ Choir/Elm City Girls’ Choir have started rehearsing in our church on Tuesday afternoons. This organization has been around since 1993 and is a world renowned choir school right here in Greater New Haven. The NHCC facilities and location were a big draw for this group as was Jeff’s friendship with their founder, Thomas R. Brand. Jeff and Tom sang together in the Trinity (on the Green) New Haven Choir of Men and Boys many years ago, along with Jeff’s older brother, Jeremy.

We at NHCC are all anticipating the soon-to-be time where we can invite the whole community to hear the ECGC/UGC offer a stellar choral concert at our church!

Update From The Organist Search Committee

Heather Meachen, Angela Lomaglio, and Jurg Oggenfuss have been our substitute organists in September. We have a candidate for the Fall Interim Organist position and hope that position will be filled imminently. The permanent organist position has been posted at the Yale Institute of Sacred Music and a number of local chapters of the American Guild of Organists.

Cathy Welch is the chairperson of the Search Committee, and other members include Martin Benassi, Carol Mitchell, Barbara Massey, Carla Hill, and Steve Peterson. Jeff Hutchins and Scott Morrow assist the group.

Habitat For Humanity Dedicates A New Home

The newest home constructed by volunteers with Habitat for Humanity of Greater New Haven has been dedicated. Volunteers and Habitat for Humanity staff gathered at 139 Weybosset Street in New Haven on September 18 to celebrate with the Tirado family. Through a comprehensive selection process, prospective Habitat families undergo a thorough financial review and complete 400 hours of “sweat equity” working on Habitat homes under construction. The passing of the hammer celebrates their accomplishment and their commitment to continue to care for their home. Prayers of joy and celebration were offered as the Tirado family gathered on their front porch!

Holiday Food Drive 2022 Has Begun!

The Food Drive Council met recently to begin the planning for the 2022 Holiday Food Drive. The Council consists of members of churches and civic groups in North Haven which support the Food Pantry and the Holiday Food Drive. The distribution of food from the Food Pantry has increased by a range of 25% to 88% this year. We expect an increased need for the Holiday Food Drive as well, and planning for the maximum capacity of assistance is underway. Procedures for food collection and sorting, packing and pick-up/delivery of food boxes will allow for safe distancing.. Volunteers will work in small groups, and the hours for sorting, packing, and pick-up/delivery will be extended.

Donations of food and money are down from last year, and volunteers have been shopping regularly for items that have run out. Through the leadership of John Tibor, we anticipate beginning a partnership with Connecticut Food Share allowing us to shop for the Food Pantry at greatly reduced prices. We will also resume the collection of non-perishable food on Communion Sundays beginning this month.

Bring Non-Perishable Food Items Oct. 2

We will resume collecting donations of non-perishable food items on Sunday mornings beginning October 2. Please bring hearty canned soup, vegetables (especially carrots, beets, peas, and mixed vegetables), juice, shelf-stable milk, tuna fish, canned chicken, tea, coffee, peanut butter, or jelly and place them in the basket in the Narthex. Thank you!

Neighbors In Need Offering set for Oct. 2

On Sunday, October 2, we will receive the Neighbors In Need Offering for 2022. The Neighbors In Need offering is an all-church special offering across the United Church of Christ. It is dedicated to programs of community building and engagement and social justice around the United States. Two-thirds of the offering is used by the UCC's Justice and Witness Ministries to fund a wide array of local and national justice initiatives, advocacy efforts, and direct service projects.

One-third of the offering supports the UCC's Council for American Indian Ministries (CAIM). Historically, forebears of the UCC established churches and worked with Lakota, Dakota, Nakota, Mandan, Hidatsa, Arickara, and Hocak in North and South Dakota, Wisconsin, and northern Nebraska. Today there are 20 UCC congregations on reservations and one urban, multi-tribal UCC congregation in Minneapolis, Minnesota. These churches and their pastors are supported by CAIM. CAIM is also an invaluable resource for more than 1,000 individuals from dozens of other tribes and nations who are members of other UCC congregations in the U.S. I encourage you to give prayerfully and generously. You may mail your gifts to the church, marked "Neighbors In Need" or "NIN", or you may make your gift online, either through the church or directly to NIN.

Come Join us!

After a long pause due to Covid — we are pleased to be starting back up! We will meet on the 1st and 3rd Wednesday of the month.

Come do some early Christmas shopping. You may find just what you've been looking for! See you at the Fair. Enjoy the beautiful fall weather!

Men's Fellowship

Eight men attended the Men's Fellowship Breakfast held on September 10th in the church kitchen: Jim Bennett, Fran Dutko, Bernie Hummel, Rev. Scott Morrow, Bryant Munson, Tim Peiffer, Stephen Simonson, and John Tibor.

It was suggested, in light of our continuing light attendance, and in consideration of the fact that no one has stepped forward to volunteer to relieve John of cooking duties once a month, that our Fellowship move to just one breakfast per month, to be held on the first Saturday of the month. The next Men's Fellowship Breakfast, consequently, will be held on Saturday, October 1st, beginning at 7:30 a.m.

Also at this breakfast, the regrettable but necessary decision was made to cancel our Comedy Night fundraiser scheduled for October 15th.

Secretary, Men's Fellowship
